GEO. REA TELLS OF CHICAGO WORLD'S FAIR INTERESTS

"Everything is Electrical"—
"Everything is Explained
By Electricity."

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Rea have returned from a Northern trip which included attendance by Mr. Rea at the biennial convention of the National fraternity, Kappa Sigma, at Madison, Wis., of which he was re-elected national treasurer; a visit by Mrs. Rea in Detroit, and attendance by both at the Century of Progress at Chicago.

Mr. Rea was much interested in the modern inventions which he saw displayed at the World's Fair. "It is an electrical age," he declared, explaining that everything is done by electricity, even the peanut vendor using an amplifier. He told of the new lights and colors, television, and other electrical interests. A robot gives and illustrated lecture, all electrically controlled, showing the workings of the human body and digestion. The medical science building, the telephone exhibit, the modern homes of brick, glass, wood and steel, the illumination of the grounds, the new architecture, are among the wonders of the fair, he said.

Flowers on Courthouse Grounds

The courthouse grounds present a fine appearance at this season when despite the hot summer weather a good green lawn is surrounded by blossoming flowers and exergreens in excellent condition. A row of rose morn petunias surrounds three sides of the grounds while a bed of double rose hibiscus on the east and many blossoming abelias add color. The six "varnish" trees on the east have put on good growth and are beautiful at this season.

Two Cars Overtaken

William Dodds, 22, Biloxi, suffered cuts on the shoulder following an auto collision Sunday at the corner of Washington and Hancock streets, where his auto and one driven by Stanford McKane, Pearlinton negro, collided, both overturning. After treatment at the King's Daughters and Sons Emergency Hospital, Dodds went to his home in Biloxi.

Red Cross Office

The local Red Cross office will be closed next week to personal interviews, Miss May Edwards announces, because during that week, August 14-19, she will be engaged in conferring with committees and packing boxes for various points in the county. Local cutting of materials is now under way and local distribution will be made soon.

ORPHANS VISIT BAY ON OUTING

New Orleans Council No.
714, Knights of Columbus,
Was Host to Children

About 500 orphan children of the city of New Orleans were given a day's outing and picnic Sunday at Bay St. Louis through the kindness of the New Orleans Council No. 714, Knights of Columbus. This has become an annual event with the council and again in the past preparations assured a fine day of delightful pleasure for the children.

Arriving at the depot about 9:45 o'clock, the party headed by the council band marched to St. Stanislaus college grounds, headquarters for the day. In the parade also was the Bay St. Louis Municipal Band and the American Legion Band of New Orleans. Throughout the day music was dispensed by the three bands and many Coast friends greeted the New Orleans visitors.

A bountiful picnic dinner of "delectables" was served at noon and during the day cold drinks and other "eats" were served to the children. Bathing, boating, games on the grounds and on the beach, were the day's diversions.

C. A. Ahern, grand knight, Ed Haggerty and Wm. S. Daly, chairman, headed the group of hosts.

HANCOCK SCHOOLS TO OPEN SEPT. 4

Gulf View School District
Lowers Levy From 7 to 2
Mills — One Teacher
Schools Consolidated

Hancock County public schools will open for the 1933-34 session, Monday, September 4. A. S. McQueen, county superintendent announces. None of the schools will open in August as has been the former custom. The later opening date is due to financial conditions which will make funds available later in the fall, it was explained.

"I expect to be able to pay off all teachers and truck drivers by the first of next month," Prof. McQueen states. This means that the next session will be able to begin out of debt. The county schools board which has held three meetings since the closing of schools in the spring, the last, July 28, voted to abolish three one-teacher schools and created a new one-teacher school. The schools at Dead Tiger and Gravel Pit were consolidated with Aaron Academy. Cameron Special was consolidated with Gulf View. The new school was created at Clermont Harbor. Also, the old Mulatta Bayou school district was consolidated with Gulf View.

Gulf View district has the distinction of having lowered the 7 mill levy to 2 mills for next year. This district is the only one in the county which has a surplus in the school funds. The reduction of the levy is in accordance with the budget.

Two new principals are elected for the county. Thomas R. Hearn comes to Kiln from seven years as superintendent at Poplarville. He is a graduate of Mississippi College and has done progressive work at the University of Missouri. P. B. Ladner, who lives near Poplarville, will be the new principal at Leetown, teaching for the first time in this county, but with four years experience in other counties. There are few changes in the faculties of the principals, there being two new teachers at Leetown, four at Kiln and two at Sellers.

BAZAAR AT PASS SUCCESS

Baby Parade and Pet Show
Main Features—Local Children Participate

The Pet Parade and Baby Parade Saturday and Sunday evenings sponsored by Mrs. A. Boudin, Mrs. V. Lizana and Mrs. J. C. Liversedge and given for the Benefit of St. Paul's Catholic church of Pass Christian, was well attended and proved a great success.

More than fifty pets were entered—horses, dogs, cats, chickens, ducks, lambs, and an open truck with sixteen different parrots and small dogs—with the grand children and nurse of Mrs. J. D. Tschopik, attracted much attention.

The three horses were ridden by Mrs. John O'Kelley, Peo Harding and Warren Farrell, dressed as a cowboy. After the parade Peo Harding put her pony through numerous tricks which delighted the crowd.

The judges were Mrs. J. D. Tschopik, Mrs. A. M. Lockett and Dr. Behner. Their task was indeed a hard one for there were so many attractive pets, that it was difficult to award the prizes.

The first prize for girls, for the Pet parade was awarded to Elaine Boudin; Second prize to Peggy Martin; Ribbons to Betty Simpson, Mary Margaret Schmidt and Anne Pagano.

First prize for boys in the pet parade was awarded to Charles Harrell; second prize to Warren Farrell. Ribbons were given Peo Harding and Mary Beth Barksdale, and flowers to Mrs. John O'Kelley and Mrs. D. Harding.

The judges for the Baby Parade were, Mrs. J. D. Tschopik, Mrs. B. Christovich and Mrs. Tracy.

First prize was awarded to Baby Schmidt. Second prize to Baby Schmidt. First prize for little girls, to Janet Northrop; second prize to Barbara St. Amant. First prize for little boys, to Bobbie Hayden; second prize to J. D. Bradley and third prize was given to Janet Luc and Boy Domaine.

It was even a more difficult task to award the prizes to the "Baby Parade" for each one was lovelier and more charming than the other. They came in decorated carriages,

SECOND SERIES OF SAIL BOAT RACES OFF TO GOOD START

Interference Wins Sloop
Class Race Over Interruption.

The Windjammer Yacht Club started another series of races Sunday at Bay St. Louis with the "Interference" owned and sailed by Chas. A. Breach, Jr., winning over the "Interruption" owned and sailed by Robt. Camors. This race was close and very interesting.

In the Star Boat Class, the "Jo Jean" owned and sailed by Louis Schadowsky, won over the "Mille Tonnerre" owned and sailed by Commodore John McDonald. These two boats fought it out as only star boats can, each boat having a lead at one time with the "Jo Jean" finally leading by a small margin.

The smaller sloop class was won by the "Princess" owned by John McDonald, and sailed by A. T. Leonard. Hoke Ogden's "Swan" came in second.

The cat boat class was won by the "Poor Boy" owned and sailed by Donald Sutter. The races were sailed in varying winds, with a good, strong rain and wind squall thrown in for a few thrills.

The winners of the last series were presented with their cups Saturday night at Uncle Charlie's Nite Club. They included, Robt. Camors, Louis Schadowsky, John McDonald, Hoke Ogden, Billy Bourgeois.

TWO INJURED WHEN AUTO OVERTURNS NEAR LOGTOWN

Passing Motorists Bring Men
To Bay St. Louis Hospital
For Treatment

Angus Mackey and Sam Erwin of New York City were injured in an auto accident Monday night on the Old Spanish Trail three miles west of the Logtown road, when the car in which they were headed west overturned, both of the men becoming unconscious. Mr. Mackey received cuts about his head and both were bruised. Passing motorists took them to Bay St. Louis where they were treated at the King's Daughters and Sons Emergency Hospital. They expect to leave this week-end for New Orleans and return to New York by ship. It is understood that the car bearing these two men was meeting a car headed east, that a second car headed west came from behind the Mackey car and passed the car; that the Mackey car in order to avoid striking either auto went into a ditch, and that as the car came from the ditch the driver lost control and it overturned.

The meeting will be in the nature of a lawn party and linen shower for the local King's Daughters and Sons Emergency Hospital. Arrangements for this party were made at a meeting of the local circle Monday morning at The Answer.

The linen shower for the local hospital will be held in connection with the lawn party and especially sheets, bedspreads, and pillow cases are needed.

Brandon, Gulfport, Kennedy and Brandon agency, was named vice-president; and Fred Person, Biloxi, Watson Agency, was re-elected secretary. This organization includes fire insurance agents for all towns on the Coast from Bay St. Louis to Moss Point. At the meeting Monday night representatives were in attendance from Bay St. Louis, Pass Christian, Gulfport and Biloxi.

Fish Stories.

Are the fish biting?
"I'll say they are," said Mac.

Mac, whose occupation prevented his fishing until the adoption of the N. R. A. program, turned out Sunday to fulfill a long hoped for day, and returned to work Monday morning nursing a pair of well-sunburnt hands, blistered face and neck, with a smile that wouldn't wear off. In telling his friends of his luck he said, "they were so big and as usual the largest got away."

The trip was made to Ship Island out from Biloxi with a party of friends who returned with a large catch.

One party reported catching 103 speckle trout off the shore line near Bayou Caddy.

Unusual as it may seem there were a number of fishermen noted early Saturday morning catching shrimp and speckled trout while fishing from the seawall at Waveland. The water at this particular spot of the seawall is rather deep at high tide and many good catches were reported.

Fly fishing is more popular than ever in this section and the many indulging in this past time report that green trout or plentiful and "sticking" fast and furious.

Perch fishing is good according to one group of fishermen who reported a catch of 10 dozen one day last week in a nearby bayou.

You had better dig up the old fishing box and check your equipment and join the crowd. Our Coast section offers the best there is in this class of sports. Among the many kinds of fish caught in the immediate waters hereabouts, include, speckled trout, green trout, perch, sheep head, red fish, croakers, black fish, mackerel, flounders and crabs—hard and soft. The Tarpon hole near Goose Point off Cat Island is the home of the "King of Fish," the tarpon and the play ground for the boys looking for real game fish.

MUNICIPAL PIERS.

A RECENT issue of the Ocean Springs Times carries an article urging the building of a municipal pier, stressing the necessity of such project and capitalizing on such advantages. Like Bay St. Louis, Ocean Springs is the only one other town on the Coastal line without a pier for public convenience and pleasure, and this should cause no little surprise when it is noted other places have long ago manifested the necessary enterprise and action supplying the improvement in question.

Pascagoula's public pier with its handsome recreational building is well known, Biloxi has not only a pier but a connecting public playground on the beach as well. Gulfport's city park and public pavilion and bathing has well-known reputation and Pass Christian progressive citizens floated a bond issue and constructed its long pier and dance and recreational building, vieing in beauty and utility with that of Pascagoula. Of course Bay St. Louis could not issue bonds for that now to defray cost of a public pier—the right kind—but it might be well to bear in mind it is a long-felt want. May the future bring it.

Our own Clermont Harbor is not without a public recreational pier.

WAITING ON FEDERAL ENGINEERS.

CONSIDERABLE inquiry is aroused relative to routing the New Orleans-Gulf Coast shortcut from Pearl River line to and thru Hancock county. Speculation is rife as to just where the line of travel will be located.

The Echo has been solicitous in the matter and only definite information obtainable at this time, authoritatively, is to the effect Mississippi highway commissioners are awaiting the pleasure of federal engineers. Their decision in the premises will be paramount.

It has been pointed out to The Echo, building of the highway in Hancock is comparatively a small and simple matter—connecting Pearlton with Bay St. Louis—and may be accomplished without delay after begun. Just now the colossal task of assembling steel bridges is in progress. These will have to be built and accepted and the "pumped in" highway spanning marsh spaces allowed to expand and settle before dedicated to public use.

BILBO'S GENERALSHIP.

CONSIDERABLE fun is poked at ex-Governor Theodore Bilbo by the press of the State since his appointment to an office in the federal agricultural department. His position calls for his ability to read newspapers and clip articles of interest to his department. And at a salary of $6000 per annum. A sharp pair of scissors and a pastepot, we are told, are the essentials of equipment plus an eye and mind what to clip.

It is stated Senator Harrison and others procured the appointment in order Bilbo, the erstwhile stormy petrel of Mississippi politics, be shelved—to get him out of the State. And out of the politics as well.

Louisiana elected Long senator, some of the wisecrackers say, to get him away from Louisiana but the plan has gone awry.

However, Bilbo, out in the cold, since he said it when he was allowed his $50,000 dream house sold for debt—and we must take this for granted—has secured a comfortable berth and his critics, we assume, are not as fortunate.

Great Generalship!

THE NEW CODE.

MANY business men face the application of the new N. R. A. code to their little enterprises with apprehension. They want to be loyal, they are good citizens, they want to help, but they lack the faith to believe that they can increase salaries and continue to stay in business.

There is something to be said for these who hesitate. Many of them have remained in business only by a slight edge during the past few years. Most of them have seen savings go as they continued to operate in the hopes of returning prosperity. Many have no reserve fund upon which to call at this time to maintain themselves upon a higher cost of operation during the transitional weeks and months before they individually feel the benefits of the new policies.

Yet, there is nothing else to do. These men must follow the course of those who are more courageous and possessed with a larger faith. Either the new methods will restore prosperity, or if they fail there is no way to gauge the economic disaster which will result. Surely, the failure of the Roosevelt efforts will bring a greater loss to everybody than a common effort to sustain them. Then, too, the Roosevelt program can succeed, with general support.

Every citizen should cooperate with the National Recovery Administration. It means more than a return of business prosperity. It means a better day for millions of American homes, where children are being raised and educated. It means better living conditions for these millions, many of whom have been reduced to begging and need during the past few tragic years. The goal is worth the venture, the attainment equal to any temporary sacrifice involved.

PHILOSOPHY OF NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING.

SUCCESS of certain stores is more pronounced than others and the reason oft times arrests the attention of the observer or to he who would stop long enough to think.

This success is frequently noted with department and chain stores and no city or town is the exception. It is quite evident stores with better and more varied stocks attract trade and serve a larger clientele. No store without goods would sell; none without variety and careful selection would draw from so wide a trade. The potential fact cannot be discounted persistent and consistent advertising is the one great factor.

Well directed advertising is informative. All newspapers are read for information. And again—Advertising creates both a demand and interest like no other agency may accomplish. If advertising did not pay none would ever appear in the newspapers. The small advertiser would not spend hundreds of dollars per annum neither would the big advertiser spend thousands of dollars nor the national advertisers millions of good dollars. Surely there's a reason.

VACATIONS PAY DIVIDENDS.

IT IS well for men and women to have periods of vacation from their regular duties, regardless of whether these be in the home, or the business world.

That a rest from the daily routine affords relaxation which brings freshness into the appointed tasks is well known. Besides, a vacation properly spent should offer opportunity for quiet reflection and consideration of the factors that make up life.

Thinking may not be over indulged in but the man or woman who has an opportunity to get away from the rush of everyday affairs, to withdraw for a short space from the selfish grapple and to dwell on the ambitions and aims which lure one on, should come back with renewed zest for greater accomplishment.

The vacation period is not lost, even when viewed solely from the expense standpoint. Business affairs can well wait a few weeks while the workers rebuild their physical and mental vigor. In the long run it pays big dividends.

THIS WILL HELP.

A KANSAS CITY jury has given a convicted kidnaper the death penalty. It will be a big help in the welfare of all organized society against this very contemptible racket.

Walter McGee was one of a gang that abducted a young lady, and received $30,000 in ransom money from her aged father to secure her return unharmed. The police managed to catch them, however, and the trial resulted in their conviction of the first one tried.

The general sentiment is that a few more sentences of a similar nature meted out to kidnappers would act as a deterrent to practising that particular kind of get-rich-quick schemes.

OPPORTUNITY IS KNOCKING.

Property owners who have been planning to repair old structures or build new ones better get busy unless they wish to pay heavily for delay. With better crop prices, heavy public expenditures for bridges, roads, public buildings, etc., it is not difficult to imagine rapid improvement in the employment situation and commodity price levels.

Cement, lumber, paint, structural steel, electrical equipment and all manner of building supplies will probably never again, in a generation at least, be at the bargain counter prices we have been witnessing. Today property owners can improve an old building or build a new one, from concrete foundation to fire-resisting roof, at record low figures. There is abundant labor, both skilled and unskilled. It seems certain that the foregoing combination of circumstances is doomed.

The investor in construction activity today not only gets double return for his money, but helps to start normal employment in the wage and price structures, which will rebound in benefits to himself in better and rental values.

THEY HAVEN'T LEARNED.

STOCKS, bonds, and commodities have been pursuing a steadier gait within the days recently past, but it has not been very long since for about four days prices were tumbling at a rate to cause some worry.

However, that set-back should not worry any one unduly. Prices had been forced up upon a speculative discount of what the administration's recovery program would bring about—in other words, the public had been gambling a little.

A lot of people thought that American investors had learned their lesson by the experiences gained with the collapse of the 1929 boom market. These trusting folk believed that the American people would never again push stocks and prices disproportionately high on the exchanges because they should know that this meant a break later on.

The lesson hasn't been completely learned, apparently. The July break may help remind those who burned their fingers in 1929-32 that it will still hurt them to put them back into the fire.

It is going to be a "new deal" or a misdeal, and another start.

Death sentences for kidnapers, if enforced promptly, will make the custom dangerous for all concerned.

Fish stories, so far this year, have been a little nearer the truth than usual. Wonder what's the matter with the fish, or the fishermen?

The money that is spent in Bay St. Louis is the money that turns over, and the number of times it changes hands before being sent away is the measure of business growth.

INFLATION AND DEBTS.

VAGUE promises of inflation are being made to us nowadays, with no definite assurances as to when, nor how much. To some of us these promises sound more like threats. The subject is very technical, and it takes an expert only a couple of minutes to get it so tangled up that nobody can understand anything about it, except the vague idea that the expert is trying to put across a fast one. The word means that money is to be blown up, so that it will buy less goods, and that goods will bring more money. It is the simplest of all known means of raising prices. The farmer is apt to favor it, generally has favored it—because it means that he gets more dollars for his wheat and cotton, or whatever else he has to sell. It affects money not as a medium of exchange, but as a measure of value and as a standard of deferred payments.

The President of the United States has now the authority of Congress to reduce the amount of gold in a dollar from about twenty-three grains to any amount he wishes, not less than one-half. The newspapers are talking about cutting this gold content to about sixteen grains, which would be about one-third of the present value. It would be just like a law making twenty-four inches equal a yard, instead of thirty-six inches. Nobody knows what will be done, if anything.

We can talk about the results of such a decree with a good deal of definiteness, because it is not a new thing. It has been tried by every country that we happen to remember, including our own, and the results always check.

The question of inflation is always tied up with that of debts. As the college professor would tell his class, it is a change in the standard of deferred payments. As this column has said before, gold is very poor standard, because it changes so much in value, but the experience of the world has been that inflation is worse yet. The votes for it have come from the western farmer, who has bought a farm or borrowed money on his farm, and wants cheap money to pay off his mortgage. For that reason, and from that point of view, the debtor is a poor, misused victim, and selfish plutocrat. He is shown in cartoons as a big, fat man with pattern of dollar marks in the cloth of his suit. The constitution forbids any law "impairing the obligation of contracts," but this does not seem to apply to inflation. At any rate the courts have never interfered with laws permitting a twenty thousand dollar loan to be paid off with twenty-thousand half-dollars, provided the congress declared that half a dollar is a dollar. A dollar is a dollar for all that. (It is confusing isn't it?)

In fact most of us, farmers, other business men, capitalists, banks, working folks and all, are usually both debtors and creditors. We are debtors for what we owe, from grocers' bills to bank loans, and creditors for what is due us, from wages to bank deposits and insurance policies. It is probable that any of the poor people in Bay St. Louis or Wave-land who owe ten or twenty million dollars might make a big profit if the value of the dollar is reduced. Don't you owe that much? Wouldn't it be a good idea to get rid of all that debt? That's the face of the very important fact indeed, because there are a number of men who do owe that much money, and they will make big profits if they can pay back less than they borrowed. The old, crooked kings of France discovered that centuries ago, and practiced it. Strange as it may seem, the first great debtors are not the poor folks, but the rich. They are the business men who borrow to extend their business, and, above all, the speculators who borrow to play the stock market.

A good many of us are more interested in wages and salaries than we are in debts. What inflation will do to payrolls and to this new N. I. R. A. is something else which needs a bit of thinking. This paper does not until the close, once mention the laws of supply and demand.

SAUNTERINGS

From Where The West Begins.

By JOHN T. MEYERS.
(For The Sea Coast Echo.)

HIS INVENTION ALWAYS LIVES ON.

WEDNESDAY, August 9, marked the 126th anniversary of the first successful steamboat navigation attempt. Robert Fulton an American, was the inventor. The year was 1765. Fulton's boat was called the Clermont. The first run was from New York to Albany. The trip out required 32 hours. Returning the distance was covered in 30 hours, both voyages were against the wind.

At the time, people doubted Fulton's belief that steam could be made to propel a large boat upon the water. He was publicly ridiculed. The now historic Clermont was termed "Fulton's Folly" until that memorable August day when she actually puffed and chugged a course up the Hudson river.

For the speedy ocean Greyhounds of today, a debt of undying gratitude is ever due the genius, courage, and perseverance shown by Robert Fulton, when he steamed the Clermont into action against many handicaps. Fulton died in 1815. His invention lives on . . . a servant to humanity.

MAKE-BELIEVE WINTER ATMOSPHERE.

S WELLERLING Sunbeams. Downtown department store windows already displaying fur coats, rail dresses, woollen blankets, and overcoats for men. A large sign advertising a mid-summer fur sale is hung outside one store. It is illustrated with polar bears. The borders are fringed with dangling icicles—even as the red fluid in the thermometer strives to ascend into stratosphere regions. All show windows require a reproduction of a fire-place ablaze with glowing logs to complete this make-believe winter atmosphere.

Until viewing this out-of-season merchandise along the main thoroughfare, we had forgotten the overcoat salted down in camphor balls since last spring. There may be an unmailed letter nestled in some pocket. Intend to take a peep. Just to be sure. . . that's all.

THERE MUST BE A REASON.

NOTICABLE lack of out-of-town automobile licenses on the streets this season. San Antonio, a tourist center, usually draws automobile visitors from every state in the union during summer vacation months. Likely the motorists are migrating to the Chicago World's Fair this year. Join them, if you possibly can do so.

SORTA LIKE OLD TIMES.

SAN ANTONIO dealers selling 3.2 beer (their number is legion) are not bashful about advertising its sale in bold letters. 15 cents is now the popular price for New Orleans beer. Brands manufactured at more distant points sells for 25 cents a bottle. Bar rails and free lunch counters are to be found at several high-class downtown establishments. Sorta like olden times, Eh?

The first kick back at 3.2 beer by soft drink dealers has been registered locally. A drive-in root beer stand takes a gentle slam at 3.2 beer competition with a sign that reads: "Root beer better than 3.2—5 cents."

THE MERRY-GO-ROUND.

DID you ever study the expression of a child's face circling past on a merry-go-round?

Tiny, little worries of their sheltered world vanish with the strains of a pipe organ. Through innocent, sparkling eyes of childhood life is wonderful. Here they experience perfect bliss. The bright-painted wooden stand, upon which they ride, gallops within the pearly gates of fulfilled desires. Joy and happiness abounds, completely, in their tender hearts and minds.

Would that an adult could side step life. . . just for a moment—and join the spirit of childhood on the merry-go-round. But can we.

THE PIED-PIPER HAS A RIVAL IN SAN ANTONIO.

THE pied-piper has a rival in San Antonio. Rats and mice have a price on their heads at present. 5 cents is being paid for each live rat or mouse brought to the Reptile Garden, in Brackenridge Park. The captured rodents will form a feast for the snakes on display. Feeding time creates quite an attraction for visitors to this unique reptile exhibition. Certain species of the snakes devour 1, 2, or 3 rats for a meal, according to their appetite. 300 living snakes, including poisonous and non-poisonous varieties, are on display at the Reptile Garden. This is no place for the fellow imbibing too freely of bath tub gin. He may think he has the DT's.

Rumblings of a Tong War undercurrent that may flare forth in San Antonio's Chinatown are being carefully watched by the police.

Chinaman, he says, "Me no know nothing what you folks' Mr. Leporeto. Allee samsee Chinatown maybe, bleeter make look see. No want catchum Hon. Hatcher man."

One Sandbag Won't Make a Rampart . . . . .

ONE bag of sand won't turn aside a machine gun bullet. But five hundred of them have enabled an army to turn back a bayonet charge. A savings account is like that, too. One deposit, made and then forgotten, amounts to very little. Add to those deposits regularly and you'll have a sum that will protect you from a "surprise attack" of financial hardship, no matter how severe.

WITH THE MOVIES AND FILM FOLKS

(For the Sea Coast Echo)

NO effort has been spared in duplicating exactly the New England setting of "Little Women," which is being produced by RKO-Radio with Katherine Hepburn as Jo, Joan Bennett as Amy, Frances Dee as Meg and Jean Parker as Beth. Others in the cast include Paul Lukas, Louise Closser Hale, Douglass Montgomery, Johnny David Lodge, Mabel Colcord, Spring Byington and Henry Stephenson.

Additions to the cast of "Queen Christina," Greta Garbo's next, are Lewis Stone, Elizabeth Young, Laurence Oliver, C. Aubrey Smith and Akim Tamiroff.

Four new MGM pictures are ready for release. These include "Tugboat Annie" with Marie Dressler and Wallace Beery; "Turn Back the Clock" with Lee Tracy, "Show World," with Alice Brady, Frank Morgan, Jimmy Durante; and "Night Flight," with Helen Hayes, John and Lionel Barrymore, Clark Gable, Robert Montgomery, Myrna Loy and Wm. Gargan.

"Stingaree" E. W. Hornung's story of an Australian Robin Hood, is soon to go into production with Irene Dunne and Leslie Banks in the featured roles.

The search for an unknown actress to play the part of "Alice" in "Alice in Wonderland," has so far proven unsuccessful and unless she is found in the very near future, the part will go to some well-known actress. Jean Harlow has been mentioned.

Dorothea Wieck, recently arrived German star, was to have made her American film debut in "White Woman," in which Charles Laughton and Herbert Marshall were to appear. She has withdrawn from the picture however and will play the lead in "Cradle Song."

Charles Butterworth has recently been added to the newest Jack Pearl piece, "What a Liar."

Mary Rogers, daughter of Will Rogers is appearing with Lilian Harvey in "My Weakness," just finished at the Fox studio. Miss Rogers is known on the screen as Mary Howard.

CHEAP FERTILIZER.

ACCORDING to scientists the air over each acre of land or water contains 70,000 pounds or 35 tons of nitrogen.

Nitrogen in the commercial form is our most expensive plant food element, and a large percent of this nitrogen which is floating around in the air is available to the farmer or gardener who will make the right effort to gather it for his use. The cheapest and most practicable method for the farmer to get his share of this free fertilizer is to grow legume crops—crops of the pea family. These crops which Mother Nature has given us have the capacity of gathering nitrogen from the air and storing it in the leaves and stems of the plant, and when these plants are plowed under and decay, releases the nitrogen gathered to the growing crops occupying the ground at the time.

It has been a recognized fact for quite a number of years that such summer growing legumes as the cow pea, soy bean, lespedeza and others, growing on a plot of ground adds to its fertility the following year because of the nitrogen gathered from the air and deposited in the soil when the whole plant or the stubbles are plowed under. And it has been the practice of progressive farmers to adopt a farm program including the growing of crops of the legume family on a part of the cultivated land each year. This, of course, is a progressive program, but within the past few years, another type of legume has been employed to work for the farmer. This type is the variety which grows during the winter months when the farm land is otherwise idle, and the elements by leaching from winter rains.

UNTIL WE LEARNED BETTER

Until we learned better, we used to mix wood and steel in our car bodies and wheels. It was the best way to make bodies—then. But the state of the art has advanced.

Of course, it is more expensive to make an all-steel body than to make a wooden frame and nail steel panels on to it. The better way involves an initial expenditure of several millions of dollars for new dies, which renders a change very costly. Cars, especially large expensive cars which are produced in small volume, cannot afford this, because the dies cost as much for one car as for a million. That alone explains why all-steel bodies are not used in all cars.

But our basic policy from the beginning is to make a good car better, regardless of cost.

For example, when we discarded wood-steel body construction, it was not because we lacked wood. We still have some thousands of acres of the best hard wood in America. Economy would urge us to use up the wood first, and then adopt the better all-steel body. But we decided that quality was more important than expense.

We weighed the reasons, for and against, before we made the change. We could see only one reason for retaining a mixed wood-and-steel body—nailing the metal on, instead of welding an all-steel body into a strong one-piece whole. That reason was, it would be cheaper—for us.

Our reasons for adopting an all-steel body were these: A wood-steel body is not much stronger structurally than its wooden frame. In all American climates, wood construction weakens with age. Every used car lot gives evidence of this. Rain seeps in between joints and the wood decays. A car may have a metal surface, and yet not be of steel construction. Under extreme shock or stress the steel body remains intact—dented perhaps, but not crushed.

Steel does not need wood for strength or protection. Wood is fine for furniture, but not for the high speed vehicles of 1933.

In the Ford body there are no joints to squeak, no seams to crack or leak.

The all-steel body is more expensive—to us, but not to you.

By all odds, then, steel bodies seem preferable.

Wheels also have become all-steel. No one argues that an electrically welded one-piece steel wheel, such as the Ford wheel, needs to be "strengthened" by adding wood to it.

The one-piece all-steel body is the strongest, safest, quietest, most durable body made. That is our only reason for making them.

HERE'S ONE GOOD WAY TO END AGONY OF NEURITIS

AND LOSES 10 POUNDS
NEWARK MAN KNOWS HOW

"Gentlemen: I used Kruschen Salts to try and get rid of Neuritis from which I suffered for one year in my left shoulder and arm. I took a little of the salts in the morning, sometimes in my coffee, other times in water. I would also occasionally take a dose in water at night before retiring. For 3 months I used the salts and while I lost 10 pounds in weight, the pain in my shoulder HAS ENTIRELY DISAPPEARED. During the time I was using the salts I received no other medical treatment so I am fully convinced the Kruschen Salts did the trick."—C. K. Murray, Newark, N. J.

Take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water every morning—a jar lasts 4 weeks—get it at any drugist in the world—costs but a trifle.

Underweight Children

Need More Iron in Their Blood!

Children who are thin and pale and who lack appetite are usually suffering from a deficiency of iron. When the blood lacks iron it becomes thin and poor and fails to nourish. Then a child loses appetite and becomes sickly and weaker—and easy prey to disease. To build up your child, give him Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. It contains iron which makes for rich, red blood. It also contains tannic acid which tends to purify the blood. These two effects make it an exceptional medicine for young and old. A few days on Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic will work wonders in your child. It will sharpen his appetite, improve his color and build up his power and energy and increase his resistance to disease. Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic is pleasant to take. Children like it and it's absolutely safe for them. Contains nothing harmful. All stores sell Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic.
